

Come and discover the history of the UK's biggest social reform movement - born in Preston!

Temperance@190

Temperance@190 Exhibition 18 May – 1 June (Weekdays only, except Tuesdays, 10 - 12noon). At Central Methodist Church, Lune Street, Preston PR1 2NL Free admission.

Come and explore the ideas, arguments, images and objects associated with teetotalism. The movement was born in Preston 190 years ago in 1832, but this exhibition takes the story into the 20th century, including the national centenary celebrations at Preston in 1932.

And join in our events, most held at Central and free admission, as above:

Thursday 19th May: Temperance @190 Walking Trail 1 pm start at Winckley Square ending at Central Methodist Church. Book with Friends of Winckley Square (small charge) - <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/temperance-190-guided-walk-with-steve-harrison-fows-tickets-296220352047>

Followed by Talk 'The Alternative World of the Proud Preston Non-drinkers' 2.30—3.30 Annemarie McAllister

Saturday 21st May: Temperance Tea Party—drop in between 1.30-3.30 for tea, cake, entertainment and a look at the exhibition. Book afternoon tea at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/temperance-tea-party-tickets-287900808067>

Thursday 26th May: Band of Hope Meeting 12-1.30 discover what children enjoyed, with a performance of songs, recitations, and magic lantern slides, and try traditional temperance refreshments.

Followed by Talk 'The Temperance Movement and its Medals 2-3 Peter Crummett

Friday 27th May: Talk 'Two for the Road, a further temperance journey' 12-1 Peter Crummett

Saturday 28th May Talk 'Signs, Symbols and Stories of Temperance' 10-11 Annemarie McAllister followed by Drop-in Workshop 11-12— share memories or find out about family heritage or temperance-associated items

