

The Lancashire Methodist District are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic self-motivated project manager for an exciting new mission initiative:

The Godly Play Bus Project.

This converted double decker bus is the only fully mobile Godly Play classroom in the country and the potential for outreach is huge. The project manager will work with a team of volunteers, bus drivers and storytellers to build relationships with primary schools across Lancashire.

We are seeking someone with good organisational skills who can 'catch the vision' and be excited about sharing the good news of God's love and grace through Godly Play. The project manager is not required to hold a Godly Play accreditation, but should be sympathetic to its ethos.
